

WHITE THINKING

29 October 2021

BEHIND THE MASK OF RACIAL IDENTITY

LILIAN THURAM (TRANSLATED BY DAVID MURPHY
AEDÍN NÍ LOINGSIGH AND CRISTINA JOHNSTON)

What does it mean to be white? Beyond just a skin colour, is it also a way of thinking? If so, how did it come about, and why?

In this book, drawing on history, personal experience and activist literature, the former footballer and World Champion Lilian Thuram looks at the origins and workings of white thinking, how it divides us and how it has become ubiquitous and accepted without challenge. He demonstrates how centuries of white bias and denial justified slavery and colonialism, and have reinforced norms and structures of oppression, limiting the roles and horizons of both non-whites and whites alike.

Crucially, while White Thinking is a critique of ingrained structural inequities, it calls for an inclusive approach to solving the problem, and aims to raise awareness and imagine a new world in which all of humanity is given equal weight.

ISBN (Hardback): 9781800313446
ISBN (Ebook): 9781800313453
Price: £18.99 (Hardback), £12.99 (Ebook)
Extent: 224 pages
Format: 156 x 234
Rights Held: World English
Genre: Antiracism / History / Activism

Key Selling Points:

- Following the success of antiracism books
- Very high-profile author, crossover appeal to football fans

Comparison Title:

Why I'm No Longer Talking to White People about Race by Reni Eddo-Lodge, How to Be an Antiracist by Ibram X. Kendi, Natives: Race and Class in the Ruins of Empire by Akala

Publicity:
lucy.chamberlain@legendtimesgroup.co.uk

Author:

Lilian Thuram, born in Guadeloupe in 1972, had a prestigious international career in football for the French national team – World champion in 1998, European champion in 2000, World Cup finalist in 2006 – and played for elite European clubs such as Juventus and Barcelona. In 2008, he created the Lilian Thuram Foundation to educate against racism, and he has become a high-profile activist himself. He is the author of various non-fiction books.